Compass Contacts ("Beat List") and Campus Communicators Roster

(who to call for specific areas of responsibility)

November 2011

How to Get Communications Support

To submit a story to Compass or obtain communications support for your project, members of academic units should first contact their college's or unit's assigned campus communicator.

Academic support units requiring communications support should refer to the "beat" list and contact the assigned specialist. When in doubt, contact the Director, Internal Communications.

"Beat List"/Areas of Responsibility

The UCM communications staff divides the news at Ohio University into beats, or areas of specialty centered on a specific topic.

Note: For areas designated with an asterisk (*), please contact the appropriate campus communicator for that area from the roster on the next page.
