Written Student Signature (Electronic Signature Not Accepted) Tou recently completed your 2024-2025 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) without providing any parental data. Additionally, you do not meet the qualifications to be automatically considered an independent student, and you indicated that you would like to apply for an Unsubsidized Loan Only. If you have Unusual Circumstances that make it unreasonable or unsafe to include your biological or adoptive parent(s) on t FAFSA, please contact our office to speak with your assigned financial aid administrator regarding the possibility of a Dependency Appeal. If you do not have any Unusual Circumstances, and you are not estranged from your biological or adoptive parent(s), you cay update your FAFSA to indicate that you do not wish to apply only for an unsubsidized loan and re-submit the FAFSA as a dependent student. Your supporting biological or adoptive parent(s) will be required to provide information and sign your FAFSA. You must update your FAFSA yourself and invite your supporting parent as a Contributor. This is your only option to considered for all types of financial aid. However, if your biological or adoptive parent(s) refuse to provide information on your FAFSA, your only option for federal financial aid is a Federal Unsubsidized Loan. This loan accrues interest while you are in school. If you update your FAFSA included parental information, you can be considered for additional financial aid including grants and subsidized loans.
