

Associate of Applied Science

Medical Assisting Technology

---

Upon completion of the medical assisting technology major, students will be prepared to:

- Perform clinical and administrative tasks in ambulatory care settings
- Maintain confidentiality related to patient health information
- Communicate effectively with a diverse patient population
- Demonstrate respect for cultural diversity
- Comply with risk management procedures
- Provide care within legal and ethical boundaries