About the TRC

The Teacher Recruitment Consortium (TRC) is a job fair for educators that brings school districts from all over the U.S. to campus.

If you will graduate by August 2012, you are eligible to fully participate in the TRC, including:

- Network with participating districts
- Schedule same day on-campus interviews
- Post a résumé to the TRC Résumé Book - Each school district attending the TRC will receive a Résumé Book

Underclass students are welcome to attend the TRC after 10:00 a.m. for informational and networking purposes only. Underclass students will not be able to schedule interviews.

If you would like to volunteer at the TRC to gain experience, contact Ali Woodworth at aw800110@ohio.edu

Pre-TRC Checklist

- Attend a TRC Information Session to learn about the TRC format, schedule, what to expect, how to prepare, where to find a list of attending school districts and how to upload your résumé to the TRC Résumé Book.
- Have your résumé reviewed by a career counselor during walk-in hours.
- Review the list of registered school districts on the Bobcat CareerLink.
- Pick districts that you are interested in finding out more about.
- Visit district websites to learn more about their programs and employment.
- Have your résumé approved and upload it to the TRC Résumé Book in Bobcat CareerLink. The deadline to be included is March 16, 2012.
