

DIVERSITY

DIALOGUE BROWN BAG

SERIES

The Diversity Dialogue Brown Bag Series is interactively designed to educate about issues of difference in today's society and on campus, expose participants to techniques that bridge cultural gaps and promote cross-cultural interactions and understanding. The series will provide an overarching approach to understanding about difference and addressing challenging contemporary issues.

- Exclusively designed for Ohio University employees
- Facilitated by certified trainers
- Sponsored by The Office for Diversity, Access and Equity (DAE)

Winter/ Spring Schedule

Date	Time	Location	Theme
February 16	12:00 - 1:30pm	Multicultural Center/ Multipurpose Room (MCC-MPR) Baker 205	Recognizing Cultural Identity
March 9	12:00 - 1:30pm	Baker 240	The Global Village
April 13	12:00 - 1:30pm	Baker 240	How Perceptions Shape Diversity
May 17	12:00 - 1:30pm	Baker 240	Marginalization & Privilege

(Please RSVP to DAE)

Diversity, Access and Equity | 206 Cutler Hall | Athens, OH 45701 | 740.593.2551 | www.ohio.edu/dae/

Building community through diversity

