

Agenda for Kanawha Environmental Education Workshop
Monday December 8, 8:30-5:00,
Building 21, The Ridges

8:30 -9:00 Coffee, tea, light breakfast

9:00 -9:30 Welcome overview of workshop
Introductions and Community Building

9:30-10:30 Resource person 1: Sense of Place
Ted Bernard, Geography
Environmental literacy, bioregionalism

10:30-11:00 Connections to the readings, Nancy Manning

11:00-11:15 Break

11:15-12:00 Resource Person 2: Environmental Research
Scott Miller, Voinovich School
History of Coal, resource extraction, watershed research, OU
Faculty Environmental Research Groups

12:00-1:00 Lunch
Resource Person 3: Sonia Marcus, Sustainability Coordinator at Ohio University

1:00-2:15 Resource person 4: Brian McCarthy,
Environmental and Plant Biology, Ridges contextual nature walk

2:15-2:30 Break, regroup

2:30-3:00 Environmental Literacy Research, Michele Morrone

3:00-3:45 Resource person 5: Community involvement
Raccoon Creek Watershed Partnership, Ben McCament
Waterloo Aquatic Nature Center, Heike Perko

3:45 4:45 Kanawha Project Film, Nora Rye and Joe Brehm
Kanawha Project Participants 2007-2008
Small group discussions: Connecting with your teachings
Work in small groups to discuss how to integrate sustainability concepts

4:45-5:00 Setting the stage for the learning communities

5:30-7:45 Dinner at Restaurant Salaam
Resource person 6: Jack Wright, Film Department
The legacy of coal through song