Mission: The mission of the College of Fine Arts at Ohio University is two-fold. The college is devoted to the training and development of professional artists, educators and scholars in the disciplines of the fine and performing arts: visual art, dance, film, music and theater. The second part of the mission is the creation of a culture of accessibility to vibrant and inspiring arts offerings that will enliven the entire community and region. Achieving this mission requires the collaborative effort of the College of Fine Arts, the Edwin and Ruth Kennedy Museum of Art and the Performing Arts Series, the three principal arts units at Ohio University.

Exceptions - Non Three Hour Lecture

The Ohio University Faculty Senate Resolution on the Number of Semester Hours per Course and Course Meeting Times for Quarters to Semesters (<http://www.ohio.edu/facultysenate/upload/CourseHourTimeResolutionfinal4-2009.doc>) resolved that, as a norm, undergraduate lecture courses on the Athens Campus shall be 3 semester hours and that exceptions to these norms will be allowed on the basis of pedagogical justification specific to a course or course sequence.

Three-hour courses are important for balancing student schedules, and three lecture hour per week blocks are important for classroom utilization. It is understood that there are special cases where the 3-lecture hour course norm does not apply, sometimes for categories of courses (recitals or band), sometimes for disciplinary standards, and sometimes for other reasons.

For the semester courses taught by your department that do not meet the 3 lecture hour norm, give a brief explanation of why the norm was not followed and/or what circumstances make these deviations from the norm not create a problem with classroom scheduling or student schedules. (Notes: Categories of courses can be addressed as a group rather than individually. If you are using a 'disciplinary standard' argument, please make comparisons to Ohio Schools on semesters or to Ohio University peer schools on semesters. If you are using a block scheduling approach, please list the courses that will be block scheduled and identify the semester(s) where the block scheduling applies.)

Reason: No reason given
