PH	Doctor of Philosophy

Ohio University reserves the right to suspend admission to degree programs without advance notice. In the event a degree program is not being offered, the applicant will be notified of the available options.

NON-DEGREE AND CERTIFICATE APPLICATIONS

Non-degree applicants should substitute the alpha code ND for the degree code (for example, non-degree Economics would be ND4221 rather than MA4221). Be advised that not every program admits non-degree students. Please check directly with the department before applying.

Certificates are offered to non-degree applicants in the following areas: Geographic Information Science, Gerontology, Health Care Services Administration, Health Policy, and Music Performance.

Do not use this application form for the Master of Public Health degree.

Program Codes

Fill in the appropriate degree code on the application form. If applying as a non-degree or transient student, substitute ND for the first two alpha characters in the program code (e.g. Non-degree Economics would be ND4221)

County Codes for Ohio and Kentucky Permanent Residents

Fill in the appropriate county code on the application form (Form 1).

Under the Kentucky Tuition Reciprocity agreement, individuals who have been legal residents of selected Kentucky counties for the previous 12 months are eligible to receive in-state fees for courses taken at Ohio University—Southern and Athens campuses only. If your permanent residence for the previous 12 months is one of these Kentucky counties, please fill in the appropriate county code on the application form (Form 1). The reciprocity agreement is valid through June 30, 2007 and is subject to renewal. If not renewed, Kentucky residents will be assessed the nonresident surcharge.
