2 players simultaneously choose a number from the set \{1, 2, 3, 4, 5\}. If they choose the same number, they both lose that many points. If they choose different numbers, then the player with the higher number wins the difference and the player with the lower number loses the difference.

Notes: