TrollToons

Momma L., who can read for us?

TrollToons

There is only one being who can read every language. You must take the scroll to the seer.

But the seer lives in Firenze.
We cannot travel so far.

My darling girls, this is your sacred mission. You must be strong and brave and wise.
Above all else, remember this.
Don't talk to trolls!

TrollToons

No, Momma said we have to be strong to complete our mission.

But I'm so tired.
We have been traveling for so long and we have so much further to go.

OK, soon, but just for a little bit.

This trip is too long.
I wish we could find someone who is faster than we.

TrollToons

That's enough resting.
We must continue our mission.

Come, let's find something to eat first.

Strawberries!!!

Hello, dears.
Sit and wait for a while.

Ob! Hello Granny.

We can't.

We must take this scroll all the way to Firenze.
The seer will tell us what it says.

But that is too far.
For such young girls.
My friend will help you.
He is very, very fast.
He can take your scroll to Firenze and be back before you finish your strawberries.
TrollToons

Let me introduce my friend. He is the fastest troll in Tuscania.

Oh no, he's a troll. We aren't allowed to talk to trolls.

Of course not! You are fairies and trolls like to trick fairies. But he cannot trick me. I will talk to him for you.

Oh, Sister, please say yes. Well, I guess we wouldn't be breaking any rules.

And Momma will be so happy when we get back so quickly.

Oh, but be careful. The troll will try to trick us into talking to him.

Thank you. Granny will agree to help us.

I'm sure he will. A troll will do anything for a little bit of honey and broccoli glass.

TrollToons

You girls take a nap. I'll wake you when the troll returns with the translation.

Fairies are so gullible! ROTFL

TrollToons

It's all the troll's fault. They tricked us. No, Sister. We were weak and they knew it. We didn't want to travel so far.

Meanwhile, deep in the forest...

What should we do?

We must do what a wise and brave and strong fairy would do.

The other trolls will be so proud of what we have!

We must think of the mission and do our best to make sure it is completed.

We must go back and tell Momma all that has happened.

Something flew in my eye!
With this kiss, I restore your good nature. From now on, you must bring good luck to those who hold you close.

TrollToons

Oh look, it's Cara!

TrollToons

My 2 Troll Boys!
You have been very naughty.

TrollToons

Ooh, ooh, I'm so sorry,
I'll never be mean again.

TrollToons

Oh no!!! It's the trolls!
Save the ladybug!!!

TrollToons

It's true, dears. You're not dreaming.

My really only troll friend and I are so ashamed. Please let us help you take the scroll to the seer.

Well, 'shoo!
TrollToons

The new band of friends continue their journey to the sea...

Are we almost there yet?

Oh yes! It's past those woods.

The rest of us must stop here. This is your mission. You must go alone for the rest of the way.

I see the goats' fortress!

Welcome, Sonora.

Please protect this child. Hold her from the trolls. Please take her to Milan. Her guardian angel is there.

We are to take the baby to Milan. The Guardian Angel is there. But we have to hide her from the trolls.

What should we do?

Only you can decide what is right. I can only travel with you and protect you as well as I can.

The last time we didn't listen to Momma L. Her caped it!

Instead of taking the baby to Milan, maybe we could go and fetch the Guardian Angel and bring her to the baby!

But Momma L doesn't know the trolls are good now. Besides Momma L didn't write the scroll! The scroll was in the basket. What would the wise fairy do?
TrollToons

Follow me, I know the way to the garden of angels.

There it is - the garden of angels.

May I see the scroll? It should have an ID on it.

Follow me. The master list is stored in the ebony vault.

Our quest is almost over!
TrollToons

Soon we will find the baby's guardian angel!

Come with me.

Here it is!

TrollToons

Have you seen Piper?

Yes, she is back after another day of searching for the lost baby. You will find her in the garden of tears. Her heart is breaking.

Piper! We bring you wonderful news. These fairies have found the baby who you are to watch over.

TrollToons

And so the joyful group headed back to Momma L.

They took shortcuts when they could.

They shared stories while they walked.

TrollToons

Oh! That is Piper's baby!

Goodbye

Be safe

My darling girls, I am so happy to have you home again!
TrollToons

Oh, Mamma L, look who we found!

Sweet baby, I will be your true and loyal guardian. I will love you and bless you and care for you all of your life. I will be beside you at all times.

Do, tell me did you have any adventures along the way?

Mr. Troll, the girls tell me that you have received the chowch’s kiss.

Oh yes, Mamma L. We’ll never be naughty again.

In fact, I have something special in this bag to prove it.

Okay... I think we could all like to see what is in the bag.

I knit sweaters for everyone!

Thank you Mr. Troll.

You have brought warmth and love into our lives.

I also tied over 500 lucky knots, one for everyone or the town.

and they all lived happily ever after.

The End
