TrollToons

Once upon a time

He loves me

He loves me not

Oh, sister, you're a silly goose.

Who is "he"?

I don't know yet.

But I know, he loves me.

TrollToons

Momma! Momma!

Now how am I going to find "him"?

Excuse me, fairy. I heard that most frogs are really princes who are waiting for true love's kiss.

Kiss a frog? But how will I know which frog?

Oh sister! Don't be foolish!

TrollToons

Dear Friend, perhaps I am your true love.

Oh but, Frog, dear, you were just my companion when I was on an adventure.

Maybe that is enough.

Well, you were brave and strong.

And I wouldn't ask for much.

Hello Dear! Do you remember me?
TrollToons

Well, kissing a frog didn't work out very well.

Sister, I warned you not to be so foolish!

Perhaps you must kiss a lot of frogs before you will find your true love.

A new big had shown itself.

Discussing something.
