At approximately 2:26 a.m. on Saturday, October 3, 2009, a female student reported to Ohio University police that she had just been robbed in the parking lot behind McCracken Hall off Stewart Street (lot 44). The victim reported that she was confronted by a white male, who demanded that the victim give him all her money. The suspect told the victim he had a weapon and displayed what appeared to be a box cutter. The suspect then snatched the victim's purse from her and ran to a dark colored pick-up truck, where a second suspect was waiting. They fled the area in the truck, heading southbound on Stewart Street. Moments later, the individuals pictured above used one of the victim's credit cards at the Speedway on Richland Avenue. They possibly left in the pick-up truck also pictured above. The victim was not physically injured in the robbery, and the case remains under investigation by OUPD.
