

Vision Statement

Grounded in developmental and recreational theory, the Division of Campus Recreation operates facilities and programs with a highly trained cadre of students providing a welcome environment which is conducive to personal growth and facilitating social justice. The Division is nationally prominent in the application of standards and produces ethical leaders through an active program of professional development for students and staff.

--December 2006