APPLYING TO OHIO UNIVERSITY

Students who are able to show they have completed a strong college-preparatory curriculum are likely to be academically successful at Ohio University. Your academic records should indicate that you will thrive in our academically-challenging and rigorous coursework.

Admission Requirements

Freshmen (first-year) students: Completion of the secondary and secondary college-preparatory program in your country of residence. Students should have four years of English language and an academic GPA of 3.0 or above on a 4.0 scale.

Transfer students: Completion of any college-level work has a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 on a 4.0 scale. If you have completed less than one year of university coursework, then a 3.0 GPA on high school coursework is also required.

Students who do not submit evidence of meeting Ohio University’s English proficiency requirements may be admitted to the Ohio Program of Intensive English (OPIE). Upon reaching the required level of English proficiency, you may apply to begin full-time academic study. Academically talented students who would like to pursue English language proficiency may apply to our non-degree OPIE program online.
