

Clark State Community College – Ohio University Plan

Bachelor of Applied Human and Consumer Services in Human Services Pathway

The Online Bachelor of Human Services at Ohio University is designed for students who have completed an associate degree or 60 semester hours and wish to further their education. Students will demonstrate leadership, problem solving skills, and guidance by addressing societal needs through concentrations of social services and public health. Students will explore historical aspects, technology skill attainment, job requirements, models of service delivery, and skills in the helping process. Graduates are eligible for work performed in various settings including residential facilities and community agencies. Finally, graduates of the program who desire to enter graduate programs are prepared to enter programs such as Counseling, Social Work and Psychology.
