

Required Pre-enrollment Discipline and Criminal History Review

Ohio University is committed to both excellence and access, and new undergraduate OHIO students must complete this questionnaire regarding their criminal and disciplinary background to be eligible to enroll in fall 2022 or a later term*. Applicants reporting information pertaining to criminal or disciplinary history are never automatically barred from entry to the University. Admitted students must respond fully and accurately to these questions; you may be contacted for more information.

Students entering prior to fall 2022 must supply this information directly on the application form.*

Disciplinary Background Questions

Have you ever been found responsible for a disciplinary violation at any school you have previously attended? You should answer yes if at any time you have been found responsible for any disciplinary violation at your school, whether related to academic misconduct or behavioral misconduct, including sexual harassment and misconduct, that resulted in your probation, suspension, removal, dismissal, or expulsion from your institution.

Yes No

If yes, please provide an explanation below, including the name of the institution, reason for discipline, and date of dismissal/suspension/probation.

Are there any unresolved disciplinary charges, including sexual harassment and misconduct charges, still pending at any of your previous institutions?

Yes No

If yes, please provide an explanation below, including the name of the institution and the underlying facts relating to the unresolved charges.

Are you eligible to return to every institution you have previously attended? Answer yes if graduating is your only reason for being ineligible to return.

Yes No

If no, please provide an explanation below.

Criminal Background Questions

You are not required to answer yes to the following questions for any conviction or adjudication that has been expunged or sealed. You should note, however, that certain academic programs conduct background checks that may provide information about expunged and sealed convictions. Program-specific background checks are handled separately from this review. If you have questions about how expunged or sealed convictions may impact your ability to pursue a specific program, you should discuss the convictions with that academic program.

Are you now or have you ever been charged with or under indictment for a felony?

Yes No

Are you now or have you ever been charged with or indicted for an act you committed a child that would be a felony if committed by an adult?

Yes No

If the answer to either or both of the immediately preceding questions is yes, were you convicted of a felony and/or were you adjudicated as a delinquent child for an act that would be a felony if committed by an adult?

Yes No

If you have answered yes to one of the above questions, you will receive a separate questionnaire requesting additional information.

At all times, as an applicant or a student, you have a continuing obligation to notify Ohio University of (1) any school discipline and (2) any charge, indictment, or conviction involving a felony or act that would be a felony if committed by an adult. Prior to enrollment, notify Undergraduate Admissions; after enrollment, notify the Office of Dean of Students. Failure to provide such notification may result in student disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion from Ohio University.
