FINANCIAL LITERACY AT OHIO UNIVERSITY-CHILlicoTHE

The Women in Philanthropy (WIP) at Ohio University-Chillicothe is hosting an event focused on financial literacy. The event is designed to educate participants on how to manage their finances effectively and make informed financial decisions. Attendees will have the opportunity to learn from experts in the field and engage in interactive workshops. For more information, please contact WIP at ohiochillicothe.wip@gmail.com.

WINTER VIP MEETING

The Women in Philanthropy (WIP) at Ohio University-Chillicothe will be hosting a winter meeting on [date]. This meeting will provide an opportunity for members to network, discuss future events, and participate in volunteer opportunities. Please contact WIP at ohiochillicothe.wip@gmail.com for more information.

THANK YOU DEBBIE BOWIE FOR MAJOR GIFT

Debbie Bowie has made a major gift to the Women in Philanthropy (WIP) at Ohio University-Chillicothe. This donation will support the organization's mission to empower women through philanthropy. The WIP expresses its gratitude to Debbie for her generosity and commitment to the community.

COMMITTEE CHAIR UPDATES

[Committee Chair Updates]

SPREAD THE WORD TO STUDENTS: WIP OFFERS A NEW INTERNSHIP SCHOLARSHIP

The Women in Philanthropy (WIP) at Ohio University-Chillicothe is offering a new internship scholarship. The scholarship will support students pursuing careers in philanthropy. Students interested in applying can find more information on the WIP website or contact the organization at ohiochillicothe.wip@gmail.com.

Please note: The text provided includes placeholders for dates, contact information, and additional details that are not visible in the image. The content is designed to highlight upcoming events, updates, and opportunities for the Women in Philanthropy chapter at Ohio University-Chillicothe.