Ohio University’s Undergraduate Scholarship Matching Program
Ohio University is committed to making a significant investment to support the University’s core mission of providing access and opportunity for students seeking a college education. To this end, $25 million is being dedicated to strengthening the University’s endowed scholarship program through The OHIO Match – including the Undergraduate Scholarship Matching Program and the Targeted Scholarship Matching Program. In order to maximize the impact of this opportunity, the University will provide $.50 for every dollar committed to eligible scholarship endowments starting July 1, 2013.
