EARLY BOOKING SAVINGS
SPECIAL $5000 PER COUPLE
Dear Alumni and Friends,

Join us for this exclusive, nine-day French sojourn in Provence and the wine regions of Burgundy and Beaujolais en automne (in autumn), an exceptional time of year to visit, when woodland hillsides are crisp with auburn and the region’s famous flora is vibrant throughout the enchanting French countryside. Cruise for seven nights from historic Lyon to Provençal Arles along the fabled Rivers Rhône and Saône aboard the deluxe AMADEUS PROVENCE, launched in 2017.

During your intimate small ship cruise, dock in the heart of each port town and visit six UNESCO World Heritage sites, including the Roman city of Orange, the medieval Papal Palace of Avignon and the wonderfully preserved Roman Amphitheater in Arles. Tour the legendary 15th-century Hôtel-Dieu in Beaune, famous for its intricate and colorful tiled roof, and picturesque Lyon, France’s gastronomique gateway. Enjoy an excursion to the Beaujolais vineyards for a private tour, world-class piano concert and wine tasting at the Château Montmelas, guided by the châtelaine, and visit the Burgundy region for an exclusive tour of Château de Rully, a medieval fortress among the vineyards which has belonged to the family of your guide, Count de Ternay, since the 12th century.

A perennial favorite, this exclusive travel program is the quintessential Provençal experience and an excellent value featuring a comprehensive itinerary through the south of France in the peak of its autumnal glory. I encourage you to book now while Early Booking Savings and space are still available!

Sincerely,

Your Ohio University Alumni Travel Team
La Beauté dans toutes les choses françaises

The Beauty in all Things French

French author Albert Camus once wrote, “Autumn is a second spring where every leaf is a flower,” evoking the incomparable amber of fall’s harvest—the cozy splendor of early November, and the French spirit—in which each object is one of beauty. Here, leaves reddened like magnificent flowers, a quaint streetside café once served as Van Gogh’s muse and a medieval fortress evolves into a renowned wine estate. In autumnal Provence, all the glories of southern France, le Midi to locals, are gracefully steeped into the scenery.

These wonders await your discovery during this idyllic sojourn—on medieval bridges spanning the Rhône, in abundant Burgundy vineyards and their stately châteaux, in the enchanting quarters of Lyon and in the preservation of Provence’s extraordinary Roman ruins, where great history and beauty have been intertwined for centuries. Experience the French joie de vivre firsthand as you explore its fairy tale villages and countryside, which remain highly refined and influential cultural tastemakers across the globe.

Lyon

A UNESCO World Heritage site, the captivating city of Lyon is located at the confluence of the Rhône and Saône Rivers. From lofty Fourvière Colline (Praying Hill), enjoy views of the regal 19th-century Basilique Notre-Dame-de-Fourvière. Walk the tree-lined streets of the restored Vieux (Old) Lyon, where Gothic and Renaissance mansions attest to the wealth of Lyon’s long-standing silk industry. Stroll through the ancient quarter of Saint-Jean and explore the unique, often hidden traboules—narrow, covered pedestrian passageways.

Beaune (Burgundy)

Amidst the idyllic Burgundy countryside, visit the enchanting medieval fortress Château de Rully, nestled among Chardonnay vineyards. Count Raoul de Ternay will greet you and guide your private tour of the estate, his family’s ancestral home since the 12th century. Beaune, founded in the fifth century B.C., is the longtime capital of Burgundy wines, located in the famous Côte d’Or département. This historic city and its surrounding Burgundy terroirs, vineyards and cultural landscape comprise a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Tour the legendary Burgundian Renaissance-style Hôtel-Dieu, one of the best examples of 15th-century French architecture, famous for its iconic, colorful tiled roof and once a charitable hospital.

Enjoy southern France’s autumnal charm at leisure in the historic, wine-producing town of Chalon-sur-Saône. Choose to explore lively Place Saint-Vincent, dominated by the Romanesque cathedral and lined with quaint cafés, specialty shops and local wine cellars; visit the museum dedicated to the inventor of the photograph, Joseph Nicéphore-Niépce; or stroll across the picturesque Saint-Laurent bridge.

Cluny
In Burgundy’s Saône-et-Loire département, visit the beautiful and austere remnants of the sprawling Benedictine Abbaye de Cluny (A.D. 910), one of the great centers of medieval Christianity and a fascinating glimpse of what was, until the construction of St. Peter’s in Rome, the largest Christian basilica in the world.

Beaujolais
From the lovely vineyards of Beaujolais, the “land of the golden stones,” France’s youngest and fruitiest wines are cultivated. Located along the banks of the Saône River, this internationally acclaimed wine region has been known to produce more red wine than the Burgundy vineyards of Chablis, Côte d’Or, Côte Chalonnaise and Mâconnais combined.

In the fertile heart of Beaujolais, visit the 10th-century Château de Montmelas. Châtelaine Delphine d’Harcourt will greet you on the banks of the Rhône River, Tain-l’Hermitage is renowned for its illustrious wine and chocolate production.
upon arrival and guide your exclusive tour through her home. Enjoy a private, specially arranged performance of fortepiano music by an internationally recognized pianist living in Burgundy, accompanied by a wine tasting with local canapés.

Vienne

Located at a scenic bend in the Rhône River, delightful Vienne features a trove of architectural treasures few other towns in southern France can equal. The Romans highly valued this strategically located town and endowed it with some of the finest Classical antiquities in France; amongst these are the nearly perfectly preserved Temple d'Auguste et de Livie, built in 25 B.C. in honor of Rome’s greatest emperor, and the Théâtre Romain, a beautifully restored amphitheater at the foot of Mont Pipet, seating up to 13,000 spectators, and still in use today. The town’s most notable medieval landmark is the ornate Cathédrale de Saint-Maurice, which was constructed between the 12th and 16th centuries and combines classic Romanesque and Gothic elements.

Tournon-sur-Rhône and Tain-l’Hermitage

Facing one another across the Rhône are the twin towns of Tournon-sur-Rhône, one of France’s oldest medieval sites, and Tain-l’Hermitage, surrounded by the sweeping vineyards and granite slopes of the Hermitage appellation.

This region of the Ardèche département is said to be the birthplace of the Syrah grape variety, also known as Shiraz, and for its vineyards, that produce both red and white Hermitage, the finest and most expensive of all Côtes du Rhône wines.

In Tournon-sur-Rhône, see impressive architecture dating from the 11th, 14th and 16th centuries. Then, enjoy a specially arranged wine and chocolate tasting with a local wine expert on board the ship.

Orange

 Traverse the pastoral French countryside, passing fawn champs (fields) and vibrant stucco maisons (houses) with blue shutters, en route to Orange. Admire the Roman city’s UNESCO World Heritage sites—visit the well-preserved ancient Roman Theater, still hosting performances today, and see the Triumphal Arch, built in the late first century in testimony to Augustus Caesar and Roman imperial glory.

Pont du Gard

Visit the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Pont du Gard, an exquisitely built 2000-year-old Roman aqueduct. This masterpiece of engineering once supplied over nine million gallons of water daily and is seamlessly constructed of limestone cut to fit together without mortar, using arches to support its weight.
Panoramic Restaurant

Built on the banks of the Rhône, the ancient city of Avignon is a UNESCO World Heritage site and was the center of Western Christendom from when Pope Clement V moved the papal capital here in 1309, until the Great Schism with Rome in 1378. Tour the grandiose Palais des Papes (Papal Palace), the largest château-fort built in Europe during the Gothic era and the primary testament to Avignon’s golden age. Walk to the splendid Garden of the Popes and the Rocher des Doms, a hilltop park offering panoramic views of the Rhône Valley. At the river’s edge, see the remaining four arches of the Pont Saint-Bénézet (Pont d’Avignon), the only bridge built across the Rhône during the Middle Ages and an exceptional example of medieval fortifications.

For your leisure time on board there is complimentary Wi-Fi, two bars, an open-air lounge, beauty salon, boutique, massage room, fitness studio, outdoor pool and Sun Deck. An elevator serves all passenger decks except the Sun Deck. There is no doctor on board. The Amadeus Fleet has been awarded the “Green Certificate” of environmental preservation.

Arles
This archetypal Provençal city, home to one of the most majestic collections of UNESCO World Heritage-designated Roman monuments, is unmatchable in joie de vivre. Visit the magnificently restored 20,000-spectator, first-century B.C. Amphitheater and the 12th-century Église Saint-Trophime, a former cathedral known for its Last Judgment-themed portal, a fascinating example of Romanesque sculpture. Nearby on the Place du Forum, the restaurant in Van Gogh’s 1888 painting, The Café Terrace at Night, is still open to the public.

Arles’ Romanesque architecture reflects its history as a vital port on the Roman road from Italy to Spain.
