Are you following Margaret Boyd on Twitter yet? If not, you should be! Ohio University’s first female graduate joined the social media site via student interns in hopes of sharing Boyd’s college experience with current students. Alden Library’s digital archives team created the Twitter handle for Boyd (@MaggieBoyd1873) and is tweeting daily excerpts from the diary she wrote in the months prior to graduation from January through May, 1873.

Ohio University Alumni Association

Hello, OHIO Bobcats!
I know you’ll enjoy this winter edition of the College Gate Calendar. There are so many special events on campus for you to get involved with your alma mater – in your region and on campus.

Alumni Association isn’t just about events either. Visit our fabulous website – www.ohioalumni.org to see how you can become a mentor, provide internships, speak in a class, go on an alumni tour, recruit a student to OHIO, get involved in the upcoming Promise Lives campaign, follow the success of Bobcat athletics and much much more!

Even if you don’t choose to do any of those things, let us know what you are doing in your life. The success of our alumni reflects well on all 200,000!

Fill out the form at ohioalumni.org/update-your-information.

See you soon!
