Thesis Committees

Department Requirements: Thesis committees must include three members. At least two of the three members must be Group I psychology faculty, one of whom must be the chair. The third member of the committee may be a Group I or Group II faculty member from the Department of Psychology or a Group I faculty member from another department at Ohio University. Exceptions are permitted with the pre-approval of the Assistant Chair of Graduate Studies. Additional committee members (beyond the required three) are also permitted. Once the committee has been formed, its membership should not change. If some need arises for changing the membership, see the Assistant Chair for Graduate Studies. All members of a thesis committee must approve the thesis proposal as well as the completed thesis.
