GIVING BACK, LOOKING FORWARD: A COMMITMENT TO COMMUNITY

Join us for the fourth CE3 Brownbag Lunch of the semester!
Friday, November 6th at 12:00 PM • Bldg 22, The Ridges, Room 221
Pizza will be provided

We are pleased to welcome Mary Anne Flournoy, President & Co-founder of The Sugar Bush Foundation, as she discusses her local environmental and social justice advocacy work and her career at Ohio University. She will also share the vision that led to the development of the Foundation 30 years ago to support OU and local communities in improving the quality of life in Appalachian Ohio through civic engagement and sustainable environmental and socioeconomic development.

Mrs. Flournoy is the Associate Director Emerita of the Center for International Studies and is a member of Women in Philanthropy. She received her Ph.D. from Ohio University, B.A. from Rice University and M.A.T. from Johns Hopkins. She received the Social Justice Award from United Campus Ministry in 2009 for her longtime involvement in many community organizations across the region.
