The Ohio University Center for Entrepreneurship Celebrates

Global Entrepreneurship Week

A record 150 countries and millions of people around the world are preparing for a massive celebration during one week in November that builds and strengthens entrepreneurial ecosystems at the local, national and global levels. For the seventh year, Global Entrepreneurship Week events will inspire entrepreneurs to launch and grow new startups while also exploring programs and policies to help new firms start and scale.

NOVEMBER 14-16
Friday 5:00pm - Sunday 6:00pm, Innovation Center

Startup Weekend
This 54-hour program brings together designers, developers, entrepreneurs, engineers and business experts to pitch an idea and turn it into a viable startup company. www.athensohio.startupweekend.org

NOVEMBER 18
12:00 - 1:00pm, Amanda Cunningham Room, Baker Center

The Venture Café
Presentation by Steve Hammons
Applying Entrepreneurial Mindsets Across Multiple Contexts

NOVEMBER 19
12:00pm - 4:00pm, Amanda Cunningham Room, Baker Center

GIS / GEW Open House
Learn about the many ways that Geographic Information Systems (GIS) can make your project or venture more interesting and engaging. www.ohio.edu/ce3

NOVEMBER 21-22

Global Storm Hackathon
Seeking designers, coders or business minded individuals with a passion to positively impact the world. Join 10 leading universities around the world in a social hackathon. ce@ohio.edu

The Center for Entrepreneurship is a partnership between the College of Business and The Voinovich School of Leadership and Public Affairs ce@ohio.edu