2015-16 CE3 BROWN BAG LUNCH SERIES

Ohio Association of Foodbanks
Working to Feed the Hungry and Promote Sustainable Solutions to Food

Join us for the fourth CE3 Brownbag Lunch of Spring Semester!
Friday, March 25th at 12:00 PM • Bldg 22, The Ridges, Room 221
~ Free Pizza Provided ~

CE3 and Environmental Studies are delighted to welcome Lisa Hamler-Fugitt, executive director of the Ohio Association of Foodbanks, to the Voinovich School to discuss the Association’s statewide efforts of food procurement, food rescue and recovery, logistics, and their work to feed the hungry. Lisa has served in this role since 2001 and has secured $300+ million in grants to support the work of Ohio’s foodbanks. She also mobilizes individuals and organizations around statewide campaigns and regional grassroots coalitions and has trained thousands of individuals and organizations on public policy issues related to food challenges. Previously, Lisa worked for the Ohio Hunger Task Force.

If you are interested in sustainable food solutions, hunger and poverty, and how nonprofit organizations influence public policy, join us for this exciting discussion!

Save the Date for these Upcoming CE3 Brownbags!
Fri, Apr. 8: Vince Messerly, President, Stream + Wetlands Foundation
Fri, Apr. 22: Earth Day Hike: The Built and Natural History of The Ridges