As Dean of the Chillicothe Campus, I welcome you and appreciate your interest in making Ohio University Chillicothe your college home. We take a very student-focused approach in all that we do, and accordingly, we take the success of our students seriously. We offer academic programs that help students realize their potential and find the right career path. Further, upon completion of their academic programs, OUC students earn an Ohio University diploma that is widely recognized and respected.

Best wishes on a fulfilling college career.

Imagine
Taking the Next Step

Imagine Your Possibilities
With the close-knit sense of community found on a small campus and the resources of a great national university, Ohio University Chillicothe (OUC) offers the best of all worlds for its students. Whether you are straight out of high school or a veteran learner, OUC can help you imagine your potential.

This personalized approach to learning distinguishes the Chillicothe Campus as a place where students can realize their potential as part of a learning community. OUC students often remark about the willingness of faculty members to meet with them after class and how professors take a vested interest in their success. There are opportunities to become involved with students of similar interests and for growth and recreation outside of the classroom. The campus offers a range of student organizations and an athletics program that includes several sports and top-notch facilities.

OUC offers the support, resources, and flexibility to meet the demands and expectations of students of all ages. There is a true sense of community on campus and a spirit of support and encouragement. With its mix of traditional and non-traditional students, classroom discussions are especially spirited with students offering a range of viewpoints and sharing their experiences.

As the first regional campus in the state, the Chillicothe Campus has a legacy of being an innovative leader in preparing students for rewarding careers and fulfilling lives. Serving our students and serving our region—OUC this is a commitment to offering an exceptional educational experience.
