Overview of Social Work Program
Our undergraduate program in social work prepares students for beginning generalist practice. You will complete coursework in human behavior and the social environment, social welfare policy, research, social work methods, and field instruction. Upon graduation, you will be prepared as a baccalaureate-level generalist social work practitioner, with a strong foundation in the liberal arts. The profession of social work is regulated in the State of Ohio. Upon graduation and after taking and passing the licensing exam, you will be eligible to apply for a license - Licensed Social Worker (LSW) - at the bachelor’s level from the State of Ohio.

A Liberal Arts Perspective
Generalist social work practice at the undergraduate level involves the capacity to apply knowledge, skills, and values to assess a range of situations and the ability to work with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities from a wide variety of perspectives integrates with the social work curriculum content areas of human behavior in the social environment, social welfare policy, research, social work methods, and field education.

Requirements for Entering the Senior Practice Sequence:
The senior-level practice sequence is designed to provide students with field experience in an agency setting in conjunction with a practice class and a field seminar. The field practicum provides an opportunity for the student to apply his or her social work education and training, while utilizing professional supervision, and is a significant part of the senior year in social work. A student seeking to enroll in the senior-level practice sequence must apply to the major by the end of the first week of the spring semester of their junior year.
