WIRELESS ACCESS

FACULTY, STAFF, STUDENTS AND SPONSORED GUESTS

Access the Wireless – OHIO University
An encrypted network for faculty, staff, students, and sponsored guest

To access the Ohio University wireless network:
• Connect to the "OHIO University" network
• Enter your User Name (OHIO ID)" and your “OHIO ID password”
• If you receive a security certificate warning, make sure it comes from securelogin.oit.ohio.edu, Add Trust External CA Root before you continue.
• Click connect/continue

If you are a sponsored guest, and you have yet to change your temporary password, please do so before trying to access the “OHIO University” wireless network.

Setting up a sponsored guest account
• If you are sponsoring an individual or a group to access the wireless here at Ohio University, please see: http://www.ohio.edu/oit/help/guestaccountrequest.cfm)

ACCESS THE WIRELESS – EDUROAM
An encrypted network for faculty, staff, and students to obtain Internet connectivity when visiting other eduroam participating institutions by using their Ohio University user name (OHIO ID) and your (OHIO ID password)

To access the eduroam wireless network:
• Connect to the "eduroam" network
• Log in with your User Name (OHIO ID)” and your “OHIO ID password”
Example: User Name = example@ohio.edu
Password = 12345

To see the latest institutions participating in eduroam, please see: https://www.eduroam.org/