Clarinet Gala 2013

featuring the Honors Clarinet Choir, comprised of outstanding high school and college undergraduates from throughout the region.

A full day of events for clarinetists of all ages and interests hosted by Rebecca Rischin, Professor of Clarinet, in collaboration with Flute Fest, hosted by Alison Brown Sincoff, Associate Professor of Flute.

With visiting artists artists Jane Carl, Professor of Clarinet at the University of Missouri Kansas City Conservatory of Music and Jan Gippo, former piccoloist, the Saint Louis Symphony.

Saturday, March 23, 2013 8:30am-7:00pm

Students, teachers, band directors, amateurs and professionals welcome. All events are FREE! Come early, come late, or attend the entire day. Bring your Bb, Eb, alto, bass, contra-alto, or contra-bass and play along with the Honors Clarinet Choir and clarinet students from Ohio University for the last piece on the 5:30pm program! No prior registration necessary. All events will be held in Robert Glidden Hall (the music building).

Directions/Parking: From Route 33, take Ohio University campus exit Rt. 682. At the Convocation Center/Stadium, turn right onto Richland Ave. Turn left on Court Street. Turn right on E. Union. Robert Glidden Hall (the School of Music) is located at the foot of the driveway just past the intersection of College and E. Union. There are metered spaces in the parking lot. There is also a public parking garage at College and Washington Streets.
