Family and Consumer Sciences Education (FCS)

Majors: Teacher Licensure & Community Leadership

Careers: The field of Family Consumer Sciences Education, with the Teacher Licensure major, presents students the opportunities to discover the following:

- Work in middle, high school and/or career centers
- Work in public or private schools

Careers: The field of Family Consumer Sciences Education, with the Community Leadership major, presents students the opportunities to discover the following:

- Business or Social Agencies, working with children & families
- Work with for-profit, public or non-profit organizations

Internships: FCS students will participate in professional internships related to their major.

For further information please contact:

Debora Rezabek, M.Ed.
Program Coordinator
rezabek@ohio.edu
740-593-9983
Family and Consumer Sciences Education (FCS)

Majors: Teacher Licensure or Community Leadership

About the Program: The field of Family Consumer Sciences Education presents students the opportunities to discover the following:

- Working in the middle, high school and/or career centers
- Gain knowledge on food preparation curriculum, healthy and nutritious life styles
- FCS Curriculum standards
- Explore how to aid student’s with problems solving and critical thinking skills
- Hands-on learning, developing instructional strategies and resources
- Family and child development
- Family and community issues
- FCCLA Programs

Extracurricular Activities: Student’s organizations such as, the American Association for Family and Consumer Sciences (AAFCS), and Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA)

For further information please contact:

Debora Rezabek, M.Ed.
Program Coordinator
rezabek@ohio.edu
740-593-9983