

AACTE Holmes Scholars Leadership Series

Sponsored by Ohio University's Patton College of Education, The Holmes Council, and AACTE

This free four-part series of conversations is designed to explore the leadership trajectories and experiences of various individuals connected to the field of education. The sessions will offer a platform for the presenters to share valuable insights regarding leadership lessons.

Session One

LEADERSHIP LESSONS: A CONVERSATION WITH ESTABLISHED LEADERS

Monday, January 31, 6-8 p.m.

Speakers: Dr. Renée A. Middleton, former Dean of The Patton College of Education, and Dr. Lynn M. Gangone, American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE) President & CEO.

Moderator: Oumarou Abdoulaye Balarabe, Holmes Council President

Session One Take-Aways:

- Key lessons learned from established leaders
- How to avoid the pitfalls of leadership
- Developing strategies for resiliency
- Opportunities to engage and ask questions about leadership

Dr. Renée A. Middleton

Upcoming Sessions

Session Two

A Conversation on Leadership Lessons with Deans of Colleges of Education
Monday, February 28, 6-8 p.m.

Session Three

A Conversation on Leadership Lessons with Leaders of Professional Organizations
Monday, March 28, 6-8 p.m.

Session Four

A Conversation on Leadership Lessons with Holmes Scholars/Students of Color in Leadership
Monday, April 25, 6-8 p.m.

Dr. Lynn M. Gangone

Participation is free. Register at:
<https://tinyurl.com/yheh3tkc>

OHIO
UNIVERSITY
The Gladys W. and
David H. Patton
College of Education

AACTE HOLMES SCHOLARS®
LEADERSHIP • SUPPORT • MENTORING
Est. 1991