

LESTER D. CROW EDUCATION AWARD

NOMINATION FORM

The Lester D. Crow Education Award was established for the purpose of recognizing four outstanding graduating seniors from The Patton College of Education. Two women and two men will receive the award which is based on the following criteria:

- high scholastic average
- demonstration of high moral and ethical values
- exceptional display of potential to become an effective teacher

To nominate a student, the following information should be completed and submitted electronically to patton-internships@ohio.edu by March 13th.

Name of Nominee: _____

Area of Concentration: _____

Address of Nominee: _____

Grade Point Average: _____

Professional Internship Placement:

Name of Cooperating Teacher: _____

School: _____

Grades(s) & Subject(s) Taught: _____

Name of Person Submitting Nomination: _____

On a separate page, briefly address the following questions. . Please try to limit the responses to one page, but if you need additional space, be sure to create a header for each additional page.

- What special qualities have been exhibited by the nominee, that reflect exceptional teaching potential?
- What personal observations of this student support your nomination?