You MUST visit my.ohio.edu to accept, reduce or decline your student loans. Review your individualized “To-Do List” to complete all action items.

On your OHIO Student Center, select the link for each financial aid award listed to review action items and eligibility requirements.

Your Direct (Billed) Costs will include tuition and, if living on campus, residence hall and dining estimates. This estimate includes a double room and Flex 14 meal plan.

This is an estimate of amount you will owe Ohio University after your aid has been deducted. Exact amounts will vary based on individual residence hall and dining choices and miscellaneous fees.

Visit our Additional Payment Options website for information about the Parent PLUS loan, private alternative loans, and monthly payment plan.

The Cost of Attendance is an estimate of the direct costs (Ohio University charges) plus the indirect costs (books, supplies, personal, and transportation expenses). See our Cost of Attendance website for more details.

Every student has a financial aid advisor – Click here to find your advisor