Student, spouses, or parents who have filed a 2015 federal tax return extension with the IRS must provide the following information to be considered for federal financial aid. No expired extension forms will be accepted for this process. Once the tax return extension has expired, the tax filer will be required to provide the 2015 IRS tax return transcript. Awards may be adjusted based on the final tax return information. Failure to provide the 2015 IRS tax return transcript after the extension has expired will result in a reversal of federal financial aid.
