

BFA Playwriting Program Application (BF5158)

Theater students wishing to continue as BA Theater majors (BA5194) or students who would like to change to a BA Theater Major from another department or school with in Ohio University, do not require a formal application, but should consult with their academic advisor and the Assistant Director of the School of Theater.

Students interested in applying to a BFA Theater major will need to apply using the appropriate program application. Students may apply to more than one BFA program (a complete written application, interview and/or audition for each program must be completed).

NOTE: The School of Theater faculty is in the process of expanding the BFA in Playwriting to become a program that explores writing for performance across the curricula of the School of Dance, Film, and Theater. The writing curriculum changes are planned to take effect during the 2015-2016 academic year. Please email Erik Ramsey (ramseye@ohio.edu) for further information.
