Academic Integrity

Academic integrity and honesty are basic values of Ohio University. Students are expected to follow the Student Code of Conduct standards of academic integrity and honesty. Academic misconduct implies dishonesty or deception in fulfilling academic requirements. It includes, but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, un-permitted collaboration, forged attendance (when attendance is required), fabrication (e.g., use of invented information or falsification of research or other findings), using advantages not approved by the instructor (e.g., unauthorized review of a copy of an exam ahead of time), knowingly permitting another student to plagiarize or cheat from one's work, or submitting the same assignment in different courses without consent of the instructor.
Importance of Academic Integrity

Academic misconduct is costly

1. Your degree from Ohio University will be degraded if it is believed that Ohio University students and alumni are dishonest.
2. Your honest work will be disregarded.
3. You may lose other opportunities (jobs, further education, etc.).
4. Faculty members may distrust students and create an atmosphere that allows little stimulation and creativity for honest students.
What is Plagiarism?

- Reproducing another person's work, whether published or unpublished.
- Submitting as your own any academic exercise prepared totally or in part by another.
- Allowing another person to substantially alter or revise your work and submitting it as your own.
- Using another's written ideas or words without properly acknowledging the source.
- Simply changing a word or two while leaving the organization and content substantially intact.

Community Standards: https://www ohio edu/communitystandards/academic/students cfm
What are the consequences of plagiarism for students?

1. Ranges from a reprimand to failure in the course.
2. Referral to Office of Community Standards and Student Responsibility for hearing. Student judiciaries may impose sanctions ranging from educational interventions to suspension from the university.

What should I do if I am accused of plagiarism?

1. Carefully seek to understand why you are being accused. Your first goal should be to learn as much as you can about what happened so that you can prevent similar mistakes from happening.
2. Understand your rights regarding appeals. Go to the Office of Community Standards and Student Responsibility.

Working With Faculty

Daily interaction

• Always be professional
• Try to know faculty office hours and meet with them during these. If you want to meet outside of their office hours, email to ask about availability.

Working on your capstone

• Identify and engage potential committee members as early as possible
• Leave ample time (at least 2 weeks for each) for review, comments, defense, etc.
• Schedule exams early
• Read the CIS guidelines.
