ABOUT THE PROGRAM
One of six schools in the College of Fine Arts, the School of Music plays a significant role in the vibrant cultural life of the Ohio campus and Southeast Ohio. Our students, faculty, and guest artists present over 150 concerts annually. Our distinguished faculty of 38 artist/teachers and scholars serves a student body of approximately 230 undergraduate and 50 graduate students.

For program admission requirements, visit: www.ohio.edu/graduate/programinfo2/MusicEd-Req.pdf

PROGRAM GOALS
The faculty is dedicated to providing the highest quality professional training in a challenging, yet supportive and friendly learning environment.

RESEARCH/CREATIVE ACTIVITY AREAS
Ensembles include the Symphony Orchestra, Campus Orchestra, Symphonic Band, University Band, Marching 110, Wind Symphony, Jazz Ensembles/Combos, Opera-Music Theater, Choral Union, University Singers, Women’s Chorale, and Singing Men of Ohio. Chamber ensembles include the Percussion Ensemble, String Quartets, Saxophone Quartet, Brass Quintet, Wind Quintet, African Music Ensemble, Jazz Percussion Ensemble, and the New Music Ensemble, as well as ensembles for trombones, trumpets, flutes, horns, and other instruments.

SCHOLARSHIP: PRIZES, RESEARCH EXPENDITURES
The School of Music annually awards numerous graduate assistantships in a variety of areas.

FACILITIES
The School of Music annually awards numerous graduate assistantships in a variety of areas: composition, conducting [choral, orchestral, and wind], jazz studies, music education, music history, music theory, music therapy, and performance [vocal/instrumental]. Applicants will not be considered for an assistantship without full acceptance to the School of Music.

VISIT US ONLINE
For more information, visit: www.finearts.ohio.edu/music/home.htm

Our alumni hold prominent teaching and professional positions in a variety of music fields throughout the United States and abroad. The School of Music is committed to a continuing tradition of excellence and to meeting the needs of future generations of students.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION
To learn more about this graduate program in the School of Music, contact the Graduate Chair:

School of Music
Ohio University
440 Robert Glidden Hall
Athens, OH 45701-2979

Phone: 740.593-4244
Fax: 740.593-1429
gradmusic@ohio.edu

Ohio University is an affirmative action institution. Insert prepared by the Graduate College, graduate@ohio.edu, October 2011.