

Agenda ~ Friday, September 19, 2014
2.00-3.00 ~ Faculty Commons 301F

1. Research presentation: Ari: current research projects

2. Remaining meetings this fall:

- Friday, October 17, 2.00 pm
- Friday, November 14, 2.00 pm

3. Bringing in a guest-speaker each semester

*I would like to propose that we invite Dr. Rebeka Campos, a Spanish phonologist, The Ohio State University

*Other suggestions?

4. Student member application. Please encourage students and faculty to apply for membership

*I have asked Yeray Ramos-Silgado and María Gascón-Buj, graduate candidates in the MA program in Spanish.

5. Update on current Certificate students: Anita Belfiore and Alba García-Alonso

6. Visibility:

a) Liang has invited undergraduate students in her Psycholinguistics class to become certificate students and consider becoming IESL members. Thank you, Liang!

b) Ari has volunteered herself to visit Chao Yang's Phonetics class this semester to advertise the certificate program and the institute

c) We need to start thinking about bringing in a Kennedy Lecture Series speaker. Danny will take the lead on this effort. Thank you, Danny!

7. New business?
