

Minutes ~ Friday, November 14, 2014 ~ 2.00-3.00 ~ Faculty Commons 301F

Present: Li Xu, Danny Moates, Chao-Yang Lee, Yeray Ramos-Silgado, Alba García-Alonso, two graduate students working with Li in his lab, and Emilia Alonso-Marks.

- We decided that we would have 3 meetings this spring and an end-of-year social event.
- Our guest speaker will be Dr. Zhiguo Xie (The Ohio State).
- Alba is going to start working on her thesis with Liang. She will register for thesis courses next fall. Anita is going to work with Emilia and Sally on her thesis. She will defend her thesis proposal at the end of fall.
- Danny needed help justifying bringing Nick Ellis as a Kennedy speaker next year. He has contacted Li and Emilia. They will help putting the finishing touches on the proposal. Liang is going to see Ruth Day within the next couple of weeks. She is going to approach her again for a possible future talk here at Ohio University.
- Li gave a very interesting research presentation entitled: "Acoustic characteristics of vocal singing in hearing-impaired children."
