VitalSource Course Dashboard

To access the VitalSource Course Dashboard, click the link in your course. Your instructor can confirm where this link is located.

The VitalSource Course Dashboard will be your initial access point to your course materials that are being delivered through VitalSource, and it will allow you to adjust your participation status.
By default, you are opted in to participate. To change your status (opting out of the resource), uncheck the “I am opted-in to this resource” box.

Tell us why you want to opt out, and then select “Opt Out”.

Did you know?
These materials often include quizzes and exams to pass your course, and not having access could negatively affect your grade. If you choose to opt-out, you can opt-in again anytime through January 28th, 2019.

Tell us the primary reason for opting out.
