CELEBRATE WOMEN is accepting proposals for research papers and posters from undergraduate and graduate students. Proposals should address one of the topics:

Studies pertaining to women’s health and wellness, contributions of women in health care, science and technology, and law, women and the media, the depictions of gender, sexuality, women of Ohio, women in history, and contributions of women in education, business, faith communities or spirituality, and other related fields related to wellness of women, will be considered.

Submission of Proposals:
1. The proposal can be either a completed or an emerging research project examining one of the topics, with an indication of research methods used.
2. Indicate whether the submission is for a research paper or a poster.
3. The proposal should provide the title of the study, names and affiliations of authors, and a 250-word abstract describing the study.
4. Submit an electronic version of the proposal in Microsoft Word or PDF format to: Dr. Jackie Hill Tudor (tudorj@ohio.edu)
5. Submission deadline for all proposals: March 1, 2016 (earlier submissions are welcomed)
6. Accepted applicants will be notified: March 4, 2016

Selection Criteria:
A panel of reviewers will review all qualified submissions. Criteria of selection include:
1. Rigor and thoroughness of the proposed presentation
2. The study’s relevance to the topics of the session
3. Contributions to issues of women and gender in the fields listed above

Presentation of Papers:
1. Each presentation should be no longer than 15 minutes.

Presentation of Posters:
1. Authors of accepted applications will present a summary poster, either horizontal or vertical and no smaller than 11” x 14”.
2. The poster should include the title, names of authors, an abstract of the study, and a brief summary of findings or conclusions.
3. At least one author of the study should be present during the poster session.

Contact Dr. Jackie Hill Tudor (tudorj@ohio.edu) for questions regarding the poster session.
