KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Dr. Linda Schott, President, Southern Oregon University

Dr. Linda Schott grew up on a cattle ranch in the Texas Hill Country. After graduating from Bandera High School she attended Baylor University and received a B.A. in history and German in 1979. She then attended Stanford University, earning an M.A. in History in 1982 and a Ph.D. in History and Humanities in 1986. Dr. Schott returned to Texas to begin her teaching career, working first at Texas State University, then at Texas Lutheran University, and then at the University of Texas at San Antonio where she was an associate professor of History and American Studies as well as the Director of the Center for the Study of Women and Gender. In 2003, Dr. Schott moved to Eastern Michigan University as Director of the Women’s and Gender Studies Program. In 2006 she became an Associate Dean in the College of Arts and Sciences. In 2008, Dr. Schott moved to Durango, Colorado to be serving as the Dean of the School of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences at Fort Lewis College. In 2012, Dr. Schott became the president of the University of Maine at Presque Isle.

Dr. Stephen M. Gavazzi, President, College Town Assessment, LLC

Stephen M. Gavazzi, Ph.D., is a Professor in the College of Education and Human Ecology at The Ohio State University, where he has established a research program that examines the impact of higher education on families and communities. He has published numerous journal articles on town-gown relationships, as well as authoring the book The Optimal Town-Gown Marriage: Taking Campus-Community Engagement to the Next Level. A former dean and director of Ohio State’s Mansfield regional campus, Dr. Gavazzi also is the creator of the Optimal College Town Assessment (OCTA) tool, a measure designed to take the guesswork out of the quality of town-gown relationships. His latest book, co-authored with West Virginia University President E. Gordon Gee, is entitled Land-Grant Universities for the Future: Higher Education for the Common Good, and will be published in Fall 2018 by Johns Hopkins University Press.
