How do I view my course as a student might see it?

The instructor view is quite a bit different than the student view. For example, students will not see the Control Panel but will see My Grades. Instructors will see the Control Panel but will not see My Grades. To get an idea of what your course looks like from the student perspective, turn Edit Mode to Off.

Turn Edit Mode Off:

1. Login to Blackboard.
2. Select the Course you would like to view.
3. In the upper right of the screen, click to switch Edit Mode to OFF:
