

CRIME ALERT

WANTED FOR GROSS SEXUAL IMPOSITION

(Posted by OUPD on 02.23.16)

CASE NUMBER: 160307 (OUPD)

DATE/TIME OCCURRED: February 18, 2016 at approximately 12:30 a.m.

LOCATION: Walking path between Stewart Street and N. McKinley – “South Beach” area

SUSPECT DESCRIPTION: White male, 19-20 years old, short dirty blonde hair, approximately 5’11”, lean build, full lips, round nose and no facial hair, possibly wearing a grey crewneck sweater and unknown colored jeans

NARRATIVE:

On February 23, 2016 at 4:45 p.m., a female reported that on February 18, 2016 at approximately 12:30 a.m. she was the victim of a gross sexual imposition. The victim said that she was walking east down Morton Hill when an unknown male (described above) engaged her in conversation. After walking with her until the walking path between Stewart Street and N. McKinley Ave, the victim reported that the male attempted to kiss her and grabbed her breast. The victim fought off the male and left the area. The victim reported no physical injuries.

This case is under investigation by the Ohio University Police Department.

If you believe you may have information pertinent to this investigation, please contact:

- Ohio University Police at (740) 593-1911
- Anonymous tips may be made to Crime Solvers at (740) 594-3331

Crime Prevention Tips:

- Sexual contact without permission is a crime
- Avoid walking alone, if possible
- Remain alert to what’s going on around you
- Report suspicious people to police by calling 911

