

Ohio University's 2007 Clery Act Compliance Report

Ohio University is a state-assisted institution of higher education located in Athens, Ohio, with regional campuses in Belmont County (Eastern), Ironton (Southern), Chillicothe, Lancaster, Pickerington, Proctorville and Zanesville.

Ohio University is committed to assisting all members of the Ohio University community in providing for their own safety and security. The annual security compliance document is available on the OUPD website at <http://www.ohiou.edu/police>.

Our website and booklet contain information regarding campus security and personal safety including topics such as: crime prevention, University police law enforcement authority, crime reporting policies, disciplinary procedures and other matters of importance related to security on the Athens campus only.

In addition we have included information about crime statistics for the Athens and branch campuses for the three previous calendar years concerning crimes that occurred on campus, and on public property within, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from campus.

Campus Law Enforcement Authority

The Ohio University Police Department is a full service law enforcement agency, operating 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, located at 135 Scott Quadrangle. The department is staffed with sworn officers and civilian employees. Investigations of criminal conduct and violations of university policy are conducted in a timely and professional manner with prosecution and referrals to the criminal justice system or other appropriate entities when applicable. The department is also responsible for issuing timely warnings of crimes that pose a threat to the campus community. The department also works closely with other federal, state, municipal and university departments to enhance the level of law enforcement service available to the university community and to provide those who may be the victim of criminal actions or emergency situations information regarding university options available to them.

Ohio University believes that eliminating or minimizing criminal opportunities should help prevent crime. Partnerships have been established with students and employees to identify potential areas of victimization and options for appropriate response. Additionally, visible patrol by officers and security personnel as well as programs are presented by the Ohio University Police Department, the Residence Life Staff and the Rape Education Coordinator, both independently and in cooperation with one another. Ohio University does not currently have a procedure to encourage pastoral and professional mental health counselors to refer persons they are counseling to report crimes on a voluntary, confidential basis for the inclusion in the annual crime statistics.

Reporting of Criminal Activity and Other Emergencies

Procedures and Facilities to Report Criminal Actions or Other Emergencies

Students, employees, visitors and community members are strongly encouraged to report incidents of criminal conduct, suspicious behavior or emergencies to the Ohio University Police Department in person at 135 Scott Quadrangle or by telephone (740) 593-1911 as soon as possible. Emergency telephones are located in the main entrance of all residence halls and select locations throughout campus. The phones are recognizable by the blue lights located above each phone. Emergency phones provide direct access to the Ohio University Police Department and can be used to access other emergency services.

Confidential Reporting

The Ohio University encourages anyone who is the victim or witness to any crime to promptly report the incident. With such information, the University can take steps to help ensure the future safety of the campus by keeping an accurate record of the number of incidents involving students. Determining where there is a pattern of crime with regard to a particular location, method, or assailant, and alerting the campus community to potential danger are also benefits of such information. Please note that, because police reports are public record under state law, the Ohio University Police Department cannot hold reports of crime in confidence. Crime reports made to Ohio University health care and mental health professionals can generally be kept confidential, although will be included in the annual disclosure of crime statistics.

Policies for Making Timely Warning Reports to the Campus Community

When Ohio University considers a crime to pose an ongoing threat to students, employees and members of the Ohio University community, “Crime Alerts/Timely Warnings” are posted throughout campus. Alerts will be posted for the following crimes: arson, aggravated assault, burglary, criminal homicide, motor vehicle theft, robbery, and sex offenses. Crime alerts may also be posted for other crimes as deemed necessary.

Monitoring and Reporting Criminal Activity at Off-Campus Locations Officially Recognized by the Institution

The Ohio University Police Department maintains a close, cooperative relationship with all local, state and federal law enforcement agencies. In addition to joint education and enforcement efforts the department works through the local police department to monitor and record criminal activity at off-campus locations of student organizations officially recognized by the university, including student organizations with off-campus housing facilities.

Safety of and Access to Campus Facilities Including Campus Residences

The main campus of Ohio University is located on 1,700 acres in southeastern Ohio with (202) buildings. The access to facilities is limited to those who have authorization through their status as students, faculty, staff or visitors in connection with special events or invitation.

Academic and administrative facilities are secured by building or facility occupants or maintenance personnel at the close of the day's activities and opened in the mornings in the same manner.

Residence halls are for the use and enjoyment of the residents of the building. Exterior doors remain locked with the exception of a main door that is unlocked between the hours of 9 a.m. and 8 p.m. Interior hallway doors are to be locked at all times. Access to the individual rooms is limited to the residents and authorized university employees who must follow procedures established to protect the safety of the residents.

Programs Designed to Inform Students and Employees About Campus Security

The Ohio University Police Department sponsors or participates in various programs designed to inform students, staff and visitors about safety and security issues throughout the year. While attempting to be comprehensive in providing a safe and secure community it is important that community members be aware of their own safety and that of others in the community. In efforts to provide information to that end, the Ohio University Police Department also provides the following programs to the university community.

RAD- Rape Aggression Defense is a 15-hour self-defense program for women that focuses on mental and physical preparation with a strong emphasis on physical defensive techniques.

CALL – Community and Law Enforcement Links is a program for first-year student residence halls for formal as well as informal contacts throughout the academic year. Officers provide informational programming on issues for the hall and strive to create avenues of communication for hall residents with a police officer.

PAIR – Police Accompaniment to Improve Relations provides an opportunity for community members and visitors to ride or walk with an officer during four or eight hour blocks of time. This program provides an opportunity for participants to see for themselves the variety and number of calls for service the officers respond to as well as providing the officer with an opportunity to meet informally with a community member or guest.

Policies Regarding Illegal Drugs and Alcoholic Beverages on Campus

The Ohio University Police Department investigates and enforces drug and alcohol violations occurring on the main campus in cooperation with local, state and federal law enforcement agencies. Violations of drug and alcohol laws will result in criminal prosecution and referral to Ohio University Judiciaries. Judiciary sanctions under the Student Code of Conduct range from short-term probation to expulsion.

Ohio University maintains a strict enforcement of drug and alcohol laws.

Health Education and Wellness located at Hudson Health Center is responsible for substance abuse education and prevention for students. Ohio University also has an alcohol and drug abuse awareness program for employees, which includes an Employee Assistance Program coordinated by the Human Resources Department. The Ohio University Police Department works cooperatively with local law enforcement agencies and organizations such as Mothers Against Drunk Drivers (MADD) to prevent drug and alcohol violations around the university community.

Statement of Policy Regarding Campus Sexual Assault Program to Prevent Sex Offenses, and Procedures to Follow When a Sex Offense Occurs

Statement on Sexual Assault

Sexual assault is defined as any attempted or actual unwanted sexual behavior. Sexual assault occurs along a continuum of intrusion and violation ranging from unwanted sexual comments to forced sexual intercourse. Sexual intrusions and violations of any degree are serious offenses and compromise the integrity of the university community. All forms of sexual assault are violations of the A-4 (Mental or Bodily Harm to Others) provision of the Ohio University Student Code of Conduct. Students found in violation of this provision are subject to a range of disciplinary sanctions including disciplinary expulsion from Ohio University. In cases of sexual assault, both the accused student and the complainant have rights which are observed through the university judicial process. These rights are contained in their entirety in the Ohio University Student Code of Conduct.

Ohio University is committed to creating an environment free from the threat of sexual assault, while actively responding to the needs of those affected by sexual assault. Consistent with this commitment, Ohio University has created a sexual assault education and prevention program which serves as the primary source for information, advocacy, and referral. Through this program and other departments on campus, Ohio University provides educational workshops and materials, prevention programs, and advocacy. Students affected by sexual assault may also seek assistance through this program in negotiating housing and academic accommodations.

Members of the Ohio University community who have been sexually assaulted are strongly encouraged to obtain medical assistance, talk with a counselor, and report the assault to the Ohio University Police Department.

Counseling services are available for students through the Sexual Assault Education and Prevention Program and Counseling and Psychological Services. All services are free.

Survivors are advised to report the assault to the Ohio University Police Department as soon as possible after the incident. Thus, evidence which might otherwise be lost after time has elapsed can be collected. Reporting sexual assault to OUPD in no way compels an individual to pursue a specific course of action. However, reporting does enable an individual to be apprised of the medical, emotional, legal, and university judicial options for dealing with the assault.

Medical attention is important for two reasons:

- Testing and/or medical treatment of sexually transmitted diseases, pregnancy, or physical injuries.
- Evidence collection.

Student Sexual Assault Reporting Protocol

It is the position of Ohio University that if a student alleges a sexual assault, the university has a responsibility to care for the survivor and promptly investigate the incident in the interest of the safety and security of the university community.

The following protocol is to be utilized by any staff member who receives information that an alleged student sexual assault has occurred:

Determine the health and safety needs of the survivor.

When the sexual assault is being reported by a student, the staff member should say to the student, “Based upon what you say, I may be required to have the incident investigated by the University.”* The University is concerned for the survivor’s safety as well as the safety of the larger community.

Whether or not the survivor wants to continue with a description of the incident, the resource packet (provided by Health Education and Wellness) is given to the survivor and resources are discussed.

The staff member is to contact the following:

- OUPD (immediately), and
- University Judiciaries (within one working day)

to provide whatever information is available about the incident, including name of survivor and perpetrator.

Health Education and Wellness (within one working day) to provide the necessary information required by the Campus Security (Clery) Act. OUPD and University

Judiciaries will communicate to determine how the case will be investigated. If the survivor is willing to meet, either or both offices will review the case and options for action with the survivor. Whether or not a survivor wants criminal charges pursued, an institutional investigation will still proceed.

As the case is investigated, OUPD and University Judiciaries will determine if there is enough evidence to proceed with the case either through the criminal or university judicial system and take the appropriate course of action (with or without the participation of the survivor). Any deviations from this protocol must be reasonable and documented.

Revised August, 2005

* Health care and mental health professionals are exempt from reporting the specifics of the incident as mandated by HIPPA (Counseling and Psychological Services and Student Health Services). They will, however, need to contact Health Education and Wellness to provide the necessary information required by the Clery Act.

Information on registered sex offenders can be obtained by contacting the Athens County Sheriff's Office at 13 West Washington Street Athens, Ohio 45701 or by telephone at (740) 593-6633, or visit their website at www.athenssheriff.com/.
