Dear Student,

You are receiving this email message because you are registered for fall semester classes at Ohio University. Please check My OHIO Student Center to review your class schedule.

Reminder for Undergraduate students: The “standard” course load is 15 hours. You will need to be enrolled on average in 15 hours per semester to graduate within four years for a baccalaureate degree or two years for an associate degree.

Some important dates to remember for classes that meet for the full semester (8/26/13 to 12/14/13):
- Friday, August 30, 2013, is the last day to add a class without instructor’s permission
- Monday, September 2, 2013, Labor Day holiday (University offices officially closed; classes not in session);
- Friday, September 6, 2013, is the last day to add a class (instructor’s permission required) and the last day to remove (drop) a class from your academic record with possible fee adjustment;
- Friday, November 1, 2013, is the last day to withdraw from (drop) an individual class (course remains on student’s academic record with WP/WF grade and no fee adjustment);
- Monday, November 11, 2013, Veterans Day holiday (University offices officially closed; classes not in session);
- Wednesday, November 27, 2013 – Sunday, December 1, 2013, Thanksgiving Break (classes not in session);
- Friday, December 6, 2013, is the last day to withdraw (drop all classes) from the University (courses remain on student’s academic record with WP/WF grade and no fee adjustment).

If your classes are not meeting for the full semester, please check the Course Offerings for specific deadline dates.

If you are not attending Ohio University this fall semester and are still enrolled, please contact your academic college or the Allen Student Help Center at 740-566-8888 or helpcenter@ohio.edu.

With best wishes for a successful fall semester,

Debra M. Benton
University Registrar
