Ohio University has a 42-hour minimum transcript course load requirement. Grades may be entered as A, B, C, D, or F. A grade of A receives 4.00 grade points; B, 3.00; C, 2.00; D, 1.00; and F, 0.00. Credit for regular University courses based on portfolio programs, Independent Study Courses, course by correspondence, or credit not calculated in GPA. Undergraduate advanced or specialized program courses, which the courses are primarily intended. Effective Fall 2002, the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) was enacted to protect the privacy of student education records and to provide standards for the release of this information. Any student who is deemed unsatisfactory in any subject matter, including but not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, or other academic dishonesty, will be subject to disciplinary action, which may include expulsion. Undergraduate courses carry 3 semester hours of credit.