

The course that Ohio University requires for Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC) studies is the course titled, "Working with the IACUC (Investigator, Staff, and Students)." If you need assistance getting registered and logged into CITI, see the guidance titled, "CITI - Getting Started Guide."

1. Once you are registered and logged into CITI, your starting point is the "Courses" page. You will find the link to the courses page beside the CITI Program logo at the top. See below.

2. After you click on View Courses you will see a listing of the courses available to Ohio University affiliates. Under Learner Tools for Ohio University select "Add a Course" it will take you to the course enrollment questions where your responses will add you to the correct learner group. See below.

The screenshot shows a course completion record for "Stage 3 - Refresher Course". It includes a link to "Post-Course Survey" with an information icon, the date "Passed 15-Jan-2019", and two buttons: "Review Course" and "View - Print - Share Record". Below this is a section titled "Learner Tools for Ohio University" with a list of links: "Add a Course", "Remove a Course", "View Previously Completed Coursework", "Update Institution Profile", "View Instructions Page", and "Remove Affiliation".

3. Select "Animal training (required for IACUC submission). Then hit "Next."
4. Select "Working with the IACUC Course". Then hit "Next."
5. Once you are enrolled in the course you have selected you will see a prompt for "Courses Ready to Begin." When you are ready to begin the course, select "Start Now."
6. When you meet the course passing requirements, you will be presented with a menu of options for what to do next. See below.

 Congratulations! You have completed the "Humanities Responsible Conduct of Research - Basic Course" course.

7. CITI Program offers two kinds of documentation to reflect course completion: Completion Reports and Completion Certificates. Ohio University requires that you upload the Completion Report into the LEO electronic IACUC system. A Completion Certificate will not be accepted in the LEO electronic IACUC system. You can access your Completion Report from the Records tab. See below.

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the CITI Program website. On the left is the CITI PROGRAM logo. In the center are navigation links: Courses, Records (highlighted with a red box), CEUs, and Support. On the right is a search icon and a dropdown menu for 'Sample Learner ID 1928054'. The language is set to 'English'. Below the navigation bar is a blue banner with the word 'Records' in gold text.

8. For any course that you have completed, the right-most column is "Completion Record." In that column, choose, "View-Print-Share." This will take you to the screen that allows you to access the Completion Report.
9. Download and save the Completion Report from the CITI Program site, then upload the Completion Report to the appropriate site in the LEO IACUC program.
