

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES
OFFICE OF GLOBAL OPPORTUNITIES

Event and Marketing Coordinator

The Event and Marketing Coordinator position supports the activities of the Office of Global Opportunities (OGO) through the ongoing coordination and launch of various outreach initiatives. Duties will include event support for OGO's signature events and office-wide marketing campaigns throughout the year. This student's work will be divided between campus outreach events, marketing initiatives, and classroom presentations. The student will have the opportunity to use their creativity to develop new events/outreach initiatives and promotional ideas.

This position is appropriate for a student who would like to gain valuable skills in event planning/execution, survey development and design, and promotions. It would be a great fit for a student who has studied abroad or off campus and/or is enthusiastic about intercultural experiences.

