

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES
OFFICE OF GLOBAL OPPORTUNITIES

Global Program Funding Advisor

The Global Program Funding Advisor will help guide prospective study abroad and away students through specific funding questions they have about their future experiences. They will assist students with scholarship searches and applications, alongside co-strategizing creative funding efforts. This position assists the Office of Global Opportunities (OGO) by advising potential participants about their options and how to finance a study abroad and away opportunity.

The student in this position will practice specific skills in co-creating budgets, encouraging students through appreciative advising to pursue goals, and will build specific knowledge about financial resources to support global student learning.

This position is appropriate for a student who has an interest in international education, global perspectives, personal/life coaching, and finance or budgeting.

