2022 FALL WORKSHOP SERIES

Jump Into Fall Candle Making

Grab some friends and join us for a beginner level candle making class! Emma Martin, owner and operator of B & E Candle Co. and second-generation candle maker, will be giving some history on candles and their relation to the autumn season, the best scents for cozy Fall candles, and how to make your very own scented soy wax candles! You will receive hands-on experience using candle dye, pouring 4 miniature candles, 1 tray of wax bark with over 20 scents to choose from!

About B & E Candle Co.: Emma Martin is the owner of B & E Candle Co. (bandecandleco.square.site), along with Braden Peoples, based in Waverly, Ohio. She is a second-generation candle maker and business management student. B & E Candle Co. started as a hobby during the height of the Coronavirus pandemic and grew into a small business that takes pride in serving the community while keeping the ancient art of candle making alive.
